PROJECT MERRIMACK - Special Report

During the course of a normal debriefing of a MERRIMACK informant the following information was volunteered by the informant who had obtained it from his spouse, a current FBI informant:

A document, undated but believed to be of 1968 interest, was in the appointment file at WSP Headquarters and read as follows:

"Following are leaving from Idlewild Airport, N. Y. on 11 July at 5:30 PM by SAS. Cultural Exchange with Soviet women - to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Khrushchev and others.

Residents from Huntington, L.I. are sending a scroll via Dagmar Wilson to people of Sestroretsk, a suburb of Leningrad - termed a letter writing project. The group is to remain in Russia for two weeks, the guests of women of Russia.
